DR. EDMUND F. PERRY TO DELIVER SERMON AT UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, SEPTEMBER 27, AT 11:00 A.M.

Dr. Edmund F. Perry, Department of Religion, Duke University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, September 27, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "Why Not Curse God and Die?"

The order of service follows:

Dr. H. E. Myers, Presiding Minister

Organ—Chaconne in E Minor Buxtehude
Jesu Joy of Man's Desiring Bach

Call to Worship—Fill Your Hearts with Prayer Kathryn Daniel

Why art thou cast down? Fill your hearts with prayer.
Why so disquited? Fill your hearts with prayer.
He who clothes the lilies fair Marks the sparrows' fall,
Though a thousand foes assail, God is over all.
Our spirits faint, Our hearts are fearful,
Have we forgotten our Savior reigns?
Bliss he wakes and woe he lightens, Have we forgotten our Lord?
God has promised to deliver, God is watching over all.

Hymn—Praise the Lord (Hyfrydol) Prichard

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Baritone Solo—The Voice in the Wilderness John. P. Scott
Mr. Lowell Lehman

The voice of one crying in the wilderness,
Prepare ye the way of the Lord,
Make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
The voice said "Cry!" and he said,
"What shall I cry? What shall I cry?"
Behold all flesh is as the grass,
And all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.
The grass it withereth and the flower it fadeth,
Because the Spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it.
But the Word of our God endureth forever.

Hymn—Am I a Soldier of the Cross (Arlington) Arne

Scripture

Offertory Anthem—A Mighty Fortress Is Our God Luther-Mueller

A mighty fortress is our God, A bulwark never failing;
Our helper He, amid the flood Of mortal ills prevailing.
For still our ancient foe Doth seek to work us woe;
His craft and pow'r are great, And armed with cruel hate,
On earth is not his equal.
Did we in our own strength confide, Our striving would be losing,
Were not the right Man on our side, The Man of God's own choosing.
Dost ask who that may be? Christ Jesus, it is He;
Lord Sabaoth, His name, From age to age the same,
And he must win the battle.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Why Not Curse God and Die?"

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you; and give you peace.
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—Allegro from the Concerto in D Minor Bach-Vivaldi

ORGAN RECITAL

On Sunday afternoon, October 4, at 4:00 o'clock, Mildred L. Hendrix, University Organist, will present the first organ recital of the academic year in the University Chapel. The program follows:

George Frederick Handel (1685-1759) — Prelude in F minor

The totality of Handel's works, vast as that of Bach, is very modest in point of organ literature. The simplicity of the Prelude in F minor reveals a dramatic contrast with the lively and more popular concertos which Handel produced.

Johannes Brahms (1833-1897) — My Faithful Heart Rejoices

The eleven Chorale Preludes, written in the last year of Brahms' life, are unsurpassed in their intimate beauty and careful construction.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) — Pastorale

The Pastorale forms a suite which is comparable to Bach's chamber music or the trio sonatas for organ. It is composed of four movements, each varying in style and delicacy.

César Franck (1822-1890) — Chorale No. 2 in B minor

The second in a series of three, the B minor Chorale is a combination of Variations and Fantasy with a strong resemhlance to the Passacaglia form. The theme opens in the pedal and is followed by three variations. After a free fantasy, a fugal development and two variations present the original tbeme in a new light. This leads to the climax—a variation in which part of the theme is presented in triple position accompanied hy appropriate harmonic and contrapuntal figures—after whicb the chorale closes softly with a Prayer tbeme.

Joseph Ahrens (1904-) — "Lobe den Herren"

The hymn tune, "Praise to the Lord," is here developed as a cboral partita. Each variation of the theme is presented in contrasting style. Some variations are humorous, one is a berceuse, while the final variation is in traditional church form. Joseph Ahrens is a contemporary German composer. This work was written in 1946.

Johann Sebastian Bach — Fugue in E Flat (St. Anne)

This majestic fugue became known in England as the St. Anne Fugue because its theme is so nearly identical to the hymn-tune of that name. Since it is in three divisions, each having its own theme and independent exposition, Schweitzer helieves it to he intended as a symhol of the Trinity. Only two of the themes are used together at one time. The final pedal entry is one of the most thrilling effects in all music.

DR. JAMES CANNON TO DELIVER SERMON AT UNIVERSITY SERVICE OF WORSHIP SUNDAY, OCTOBER 11, AT 11:00 A.M.

Dr. James Cannon, Dean, Duke Divinity School, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, October 11, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "What and Where Is Home?"

The order of service follows:

Dr. Herbert J. Herring, Presiding

Organ—O God, Thou Faithful God — Karg-Elert
Trumpet Voluntary — Purcell
Ave Maria — Arcadelt-Liszt

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer — Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Come, Thou Fount of Every Blessing (Nettleton) — Wyeth

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Jesus, Our Lord, We Adore Thee — Will James

Jesus, our Lord, we adore Thee, Jesus, our crucified Savior.
From Thy wounded side flowed Thy precious blood.
For us the cross with all its shame with grace was borne.
With Thy blood Thou washed away the guilt and the shame and the sins of the world.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world!
In agony Thy tears were shed, In shame was bowed Thy sacred head.
O Lamb of God, Jesus, our Lord, we adore Thee, our Lord.

Hymn—The World's Astir (All Saints, New) — Cutler

Scripture—Matthew 25:14-30

Offertory Anthem—Give Me a Faith — Roberta Bitgood
Soloists: Mr. Henry Markot, Tenor; Mr. Robert Chambers, Baritone

Give me a faith, O Lord, I pray, A faith that makes me strong each day,
That helps me face the storms of life, That takes away the sting of strife.
Give me a joy that faith will bring, A joy that helps my heart to sing,
Whate'er the tasks and perils be, And trials sore that trouble me.
Give me the peace that faith will give, A peace that shows me how to live
Above the loud and mighty roar Of winds and waves upon life's shore.
Give me the peace.
Give me the hope that faith bestows, A hope that triumphs thro' all woes,
To see the dawning of the hour When all shall recognize thy pow'r.
Give me a faith that ever grows In spite of clouds and cruel foes;
A faith that holds me close to thee, And from all ills will set me free.
Give me a faith.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"What and Where Is Home?"

Benediction

Response by Choir—Sevenfold Amen — Stainer

Organ—The Pilgrim's Chorus from "Tannhauser" — Wagner

We look to Thee for preservation, Guard and defend us from our foes.
So long Thy pow'r has ever blest us, Now may its presence bless us still.
Grant us Thy grace to be more righteous, Striving to do Thy holy will.
And when at last our course is ended, Take us to dwell in all our days
With those who have become immortal: Thine be the pow'r and Thine the praise!

ORGAN RECITAL

Will O. Headlee, guest organist, will give a recital in the University Chapel, Sunday afternoon, November 1, at 4:00 o'clock.

The program follows:

Dietrich Buxtehude (1637-1707) Prelude and Fugue in F Sharp Minor

Buxtehude's works for the organ form the climax of North German organ music in the 17th century. The prelude and fugue with Buxtehude is a five-part form; in this instance: Opening Movement—two Fugues—Episode—Finale. This work is a splendid example of bis genius at organizing seemingly disparate ideas.

Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Choral Prelude "Schmucke dich, O liebe Seele"

Bach's setting of "perhaps the finest of all German hymns for the Holy Communion" so affected Mendelssohn that he told Schumann, "Were life deprived of all trust, of all faith, tbis simple chorale would restore all to me."

Johann Sebastian Bach Fantasia in G Major
Tres Vitement
Gravement
Lentement

This is an early work of Bach, consisting of a lengthy five-part section of tranquil and finished polyphony surrounded by quick and brilliant passage work.

César Franck (1822-1890) Fantasia in A Major

The Fantasia is the first of three pieces Franck wrote for the inauguration of the organ at the Trocadero in Paris during the exhibition of 1879. It is not well known, but it has the same deeply spiritual quality that is characteristic of most of his music.

Jean Langlais (born 1907) Suite Breve (1947)
II. Cantilene

The term Cantilena denotes a secular melody of lyrical rather than dramatic or virtuoso character. This one is a simple three-part song, to be simply enjoyed.

Olivier Messiaen (born 1908) La Nativite du Seigneur (1936)
9. Dieu parmi nous

Messiaen is perhaps the most advance-guard composer in France today. He is a romantic mystic whose language is massively dissonant and rhythmically complex, but whose music is lucid to the ear.

"God amoug us" is a work of profound wonder and uninhibited joy at the incarnation of God. It is built exclusively on four themes stated immediately and inscribed thus:

"Words of faith of the Blessed Virgin and of the Holy Church: He that created me made my tabernacle to rest . . . the word was made flesh and dwelt among us . . . my soul doth magnify the Lord and my spirit hath rejoiced in God my Savior."

The next recital in the University Chapel will be on Sunday afternoon, November 15, at 4:00 o'clock. Playing with Mildred L. Hendrix, University organist, will be Julia W. Mueller, violin; Ernst Peschel, 'cello; and Allan H. Bone, clarinet.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—O Lord God, Unto Whom Vengeance Belongeth Baker

Soloist: Mr. Lowell Lehman, Baritone

O Lord God, unto whom vengeance belongeth: O God, show thyself.
Lift up thyself, thou Judge of the earth: render a reward to the proud.
Lord, how long shall the wicked triumph?
How long shall they utter and speak hard things?
They break in pieces thy people.
They slay the widow and stranger: and murder the fatherless.
Yet they say, The Lord shall not see.
Man that is in honor and understandeth not is like the beasts that perish.
For when he dieth, he shall carry nothing away: his glory shall not descend after him.
The fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom: a good understanding have all they that do his commandments.
I will praise thee, O Lord. I will sing unto thee among the people.
Be thou exalted, O God; let thy glory be above all the earth.
I will praise thee, O Lord.

Hymn—'Mid All the Traffic of the Ways (St. Agnes) Dykes

Scripture—Matthew 6:1-6; 16-18

Offertory Anthem—O Saviour Sweet Bach-Dickinson

Soloists: Mr. Bruce Pate, Baritone; Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto; Mr. Wallace Kirby, Baritone

O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Thy Father's will has all Thy mind,
From Heaven Thou hast vouchsafed to come, With men, as Man, to make Thy home,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, The way to please Thee we would find,
Whate'er we have, it comes of Thee, O let us ever near Thee be,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind, Who came to earth The lost to find,
Who died to save us on the tree, Our hearts are filled with love to Thee,
O Saviour sweet, O Saviour kind.
Thee with tender care I'll cherish, Live to Thee, Die to Thee;
Thus I shall not perish, But with Thee abide forever, Joyfully, peacefully
Where life endeth never.

For whither thou goest I will go, and where thou lodgest I will lodge.
Thy people shall be my people, and thy God, my God.

All Thy works with joy surround Thee, Earth and heav'ns reflect Thy rays,
Stars and angels sing around Thee, Centre of unbroken praise;
Field and forest, vale and mountain, Blooming meadow, flashing sea,
Chanting bird and flowing fountain, Call us to rejoice in Thee.
Thou art giving and forgiving, Ever blessing, ever blest,
Well-spring of the joy of loving, Ocean depth of happy rest!
Thou our Father, Christ our Brother, All who live in love are Thine:
Teach us how to love each other, Lift us to the joy divine.
Mortals join the mighty chorus, Which the morning stars began,
Father love is reigning o'er us, Brother love binds man to man.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—Brother James' Air Arr. Gordon Jacob

The Lord's my Shepherd, I'll not want, He makes me down to lie
In pastures green, He leadeth me The quiet waters by.
My soul He doth restore again And me to walk doth make
Within the Paths of Blessedness, E'en for His own Name's sake.
Yea, though I pass thro' shadowed vale, Yet will I fear no ill;
For Thou art with me, And Thy Rod and Staff me comfort still.
My table Thou hast furnished In presence of my foes;
My head with oil Thou dost anoint, And my cup overflows.
Goodness and mercy all my days Will surely follow me;
And in my Father's heart alway My dwelling place shall be.
And in my heart for evermore Thy dwelling place shall be.

Give me a faith, O Lord, I pray, A faith that makes me strong each day,
That helps me face the storms of life, That takes away the sting of strife.
Give me a joy that faith will bring, A joy that helps my heart to sing.
Whate'er the tasks and perils be, And trials sore that trouble me.
Give me the peace that faith will give, A peace that shows me how to live
Above the loud and mighty roar Of winds and waves upon life's shore.
Give me the peace.
Give me the hope that faith bestows, A hope that triumphs thro' all woes,
To see the dawning of the hour When all shall recognize thy pow'r.
Give me a faith that ever grows In spite of clouds and cruel foes;
A faith that holds me close to thee, And from all ills will set me free.
Give me a faith.

An endless Alleluia!
The Holy City shall take up the strain, And with glad songs resounding wake again
An endless Alleluia!
In blissful antiphons ye thus rejoice, To render to the Lord with gladsome voice
An endless Alleluia!
Ye who have gained at length your palms in bliss, Victorious ones, your chant shall still be this,
An endless Alleluia!
There in one loud acclaim forever ring The strains which tell the honor of your King,
An endless Alleluia!
This is the rest for weary ones brought back, This is the food and drink which none shall lack,
An endless Alleluia!
While Thee, by whom were all things made, we praise Forever, and tell out in sweetest lays
An endless Alleluia!

Dr. A. Hollis Edens, Presiding

Organ—Andante Cantabile from Symphony IV	Widor
Antiphon III	Dupré
Pastorale	Milhaud

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—Holy, Holy, Holy! (Nicaea) Dykes

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Tenor Solo—If with All Your Hearts from "Elijah" Mendelssohn

Mr. William Kirkpatrick

Ye people, rend your hearts, and not your garments, for your transgressions the Prophet Elijah hath sealed the heavens through the word of God. I therefore say to ye, Forsake your idols, return to God; for He is slow to anger, and merciful, and kind and gracious, and repenteth Him of the evil.
If with all your hearts ye truly seek me, ye shall ever surely find me. Thus saith our God.
Oh! that I knew where I might find Him, that I might even come before His presence.

Hymn—My Faith Looks up to Thee (Olivet) Mason

Scripture—Mark 9: 14-24

Offertory Anthem—Jesus, Our Lord, We Adore Thee Will James

Jesus, our Lord, we adore Thee. Jesus, our crucified Savior.
From Thy wounded side flowed Thy precious blood.
For us the cross with all its shame with grace was borne.
With Thy blood Thou washed away the guilt and the shame and the sins of the world.
O Lamb of God, that takest away the sins of the world!
In agony Thy tears were shed. In shame was bowed Thy sacred head.
O Lamb of God, Jesus, our Lord, we adore Thee, our Lord.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"Finding a Faith"

Benediction

Response by Choir—The Lord Bless You and Keep You Lutkin

The Lord bless you and keep you, the Lord lift His countenance upon you, and give you peace.
The Lord make His face to shine upon you, and be gracious unto you. Amen.

Organ—We All Believe in One God Bach

Toccata in F Major Buxtehude

Call to Worship—A Morning Prayer Sibelius-Carroll

The morning sun dispels the darkened cloud. Sun of my soul, I cry aloud
To Thee for faith and strength to carry on, Thro' darkest night till break of dawn.
The morning sun gives birth to ev'ry day: To Thee, my God, I kneel and pray.

Hymn—O Word of God Incarnate (Aurelia) Samuel Wesley

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Tenor Solo—Come, Ye Blessed John P. Scott
Mr. William Kirkpatrick

Then shall the King say unto them upon His right hand,
Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you From the foundation of the world.
I was an-hungered, and ye gave me meat; I was a-thirst, and ye gave me drink;
I was a stranger, and ye took me in, Naked, and ye clothed me,
I was sick, and ye visited me; I was in prison, and ye came unto me.
Therefore, Come, ye blessed of my Father, inherit the kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world.
Come, ye blessed, of my Father, come.

Hymn—Lead on, O King Eternal (Lancashire) Henry Smart

Scripture—Matthew 11: 2-19

Offertory Anthem—Psalm XXXIII Carl F. Mueller

Jehovah from His throne on high Looks down with clear and searching eye On all that dwell below;
And He that fashioned heart and mind Looks ever down on all mankind, The works of man to know.
Not human strength or mighty hosts, Not charging steeds or warlike boasts Can save from overthrow;
But God will save from death and shame All those who fear and trust His name, And they no want shall know.
Our hope is on Jehovah stayed, In Him our hearts are joyful made. Our help and shield is He.
Our trust is in His holy name, Thy mercy, Lord, in faith we claim, As we have hoped in Thee.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

His banners are o'er us, His Light goes before us, A pillar of fire shining forth in the night,
Till shadows have vanish'd And darkness is banish'd, As forward we travel from light into light!
His law He enforces, the stars in their courses, The sun in his orbit, obediently shine!
The hills and the mountains, the rivers and fountains, The deeps of the ocean proclaim Him Divine.
We, too, should be voicing our love and rejoicing, With glad adoration a song let us raise.

ORGAN RECITAL BY JEAN LANGLAIS

Jean Langlais, the distinguished, blind French organist and composer from the Chapel of Ste. Clotilde, Paris, France, will present an organ recital in the University Chapel on Sunday, March 14, at 4:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

Following is Monsieur Langlais' program:

Teleman-Johann Sebastian Bach (1685-1750) Concerto (Allegro-Grave-Presto)
This Concerto, formerly accredited to Vivaldi and now to Teleman, was arranged for organ by Bach.

Johann Sebastian Bach Chorals
(a) My Soul Doth Magnify the Lord
(b) He That Suffereth God to Guide Him
These two chorals, extracts from two cantatas, were also adapted for the organ by the composer.

Gastou Litaize Prelude, from "12 Pieces"
In this prelude, in arabesque form, the composer makes use, in a charming manner, of flutes, bourdons and voix celestes.

Camille Saint-Saens (1835-1921) Prelude and Fugue in E flat
Saint-Saens, who influences so greatly the revival of classical music, reaffirms the grand tradition in composing a work of rich architecture.

Jean Langlais (1907-) Acclamations, from "Suite Medievale"
The theme of this work is attributed to Charlemagne. The composer tries to recreate a medieval atmosphere by using extensively portions of the Carolingian melody.

Jean Langlais Communion, from "Hommage a Frescobaldi"
This piece is based on a gregorian theme sung for the Holy Sacrament.

Jean Langlais Francaise, from "Suite Francaise"
This short work takes its inspiration from the 18th Century, not only in form but in spirit as well.

Jean Langlais Incantation for a Holy Day
Composed especially for Holy Saturday, this work, free in form, takes for its theme the prayers sung for this particular day. The unusual liturgical chant "Lumen Christi" is also applied here.

Jean Langlais Improvisation on submitted themes
The University Organist will play two original themes composed by Mr. James Wood of the Department of Aesthetics, Art, and Music, which Monsieur Langlais has never heard before.

Organ—Two Chorale Preludes Healey Willan
Chaconne Pachelbel

Call to Worship—Holy, Holy, Holy (Kedushah) Max Spicker
Holy, holy, holy is the Lord of hosts.
The heav'ns and the earth are full of His glory.

Hymn—Praise to the Lord (Lobe Den Herrn)
From Praxis Pietatis Melica, 1668

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Baritone Solo—God, My Father
from "The Seven Last Words" Dubois
Mr. Lowell Lehman

God, my Father, oh why hast Thou forsaken me?
All those who were my friends, all have now forsaken me; and they that hate me do now prevail against me, and he whom I have cherished, he hath betray'd me.
God, my Father, oh why hast Thou forsaken me?
Even the vine that I have chosen, and that I have planted: wherefore art thou now so strangely turn'd into hitterness, that I by thee am crucified?
God, my Father, oh why hast Thou forsaken me?

Hymn—God of Grace and God of Glory (Cwm Rhondda) Hughes

Scripture—Matthew 10: 34-39

Offertory Anthem—Go to Dark Gethsemane Noble

Go to dark Gethsemane, Ye that feel the tempter's pow'r;
Your Redeemer's conflict see, Watch with Him one bitter hour,
Turn not from His griefs away,
Learn of Jesus Christ to pray.
Follow to the judgment-hall; View the Lord of life arraigned;
Oh the wormwood and the gall! Oh the pangs His soul sustained!
Shun not suff'ring, shame, or loss,
Learn of Him to bear the Cross.
Calvary's mournful mountain climb;
There, adoring at His feet, Mark the miracle of time,
God's own sacrifice complete, "It is finished!" hear Him cry:
Learn of Jesus Christ to die. Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Call to Worship—Thy Blessings Father H. Johnson

Thy blessings, Father, upon this house of Thine, And all that pray therein!
Grace and peace from Thee, Our God, Father, and bless'd beloved Redeemer!
From varied haunts and callings come These pilgrims of the Quest Divine.
Theirs is the Soul of human kind The hope, the faith, the search for Thee.
To Thee, O Father, do they pray? And ask Thy love and grace sublime! Amen.

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Anthem—In Faith I Calmly Rest Bach-Dickinson

Soloists: Mrs. H. E. Myers, Contralto; Mr. Lowell Lehman, Baritone

In faith I calmly rest, And put my trust in God,
Although oft sore opprest With anxious care and dread;
His friendship my reward, In Him my joy I find;
He keepeth watch and ward O'er me and o'er my honse.
Therefore I thank my God, And joy to do His will,
I know, whate'er hefall, His love doth lead me still.
So, like a little child Who clasps his father's hand,
Serene I take my way, In faith untrouhled stand.
Great peace they surely have Who in the Lord confide,
Who cast on Him all care, And in His love abide.

Hymn—O for a Heart to Praise My God (Belmont) From Gardiner's Sacred Melodies

Scripture—Romans 12: 1, 2, 9-21

Offertory Anthem—For All the Saints Williams-Ley

For all the Saints who from their lahours rest,
Who Thee hy faith hefore the world confest,
Thy Name, O Jesu, he for ever hlest. Alleluya!
Thou wast their Rock, their Fortress, and their Might;
Thou Lord, their Captain in the well-fought fight;
Thou in the darkness drear their one true Light. Alleluya!
O may Thy soldiers, faithful, true and bold,
Fight as the Saints who nohly fought of old,
And win, with them, the victor's crown of gold. Alleluya!
But lo! there hreaks a yet more glorious day;
The Saints triumphant rise in hright array:
The King of Glory passes on His way. Alleluya!
From earth's wide hounds, from ocean's farthest coast,
Through gates of pearl streams in the countless host,
Singing to Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Alleluya! Amen.

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all hlessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"What Does It Mean to Be Saved?"

Benediction

Response by Choir—God Be in My Head Davies

God he in my head, And in my nnderstanding;
God he in mine eyes, And in my looking;
God he in my mouth, And in my speaking;
God he in my heart, And in my thinking;
God he at mine end, And at my departing.

The Reverend Barney L. Jones, Chaplain to the University, will deliver the sermon at the University Service of Worship on Sunday morning, May 30, at 11:00 o'clock in the University Chapel. His subject will be "With Answerable Courage."

The order of service follows:

Organ—Prelude in F minor Handel

Suite from the "Water Music" Handel
Allegro
Air

Call to Worship—Prayer Guion-Downing

Lord, in this hour of tumult, Lord, in this night of fears,
Keep open, oh, keep open My eyes, my heart, my ears.
Not blindly, not in hatred, Lord, let me do my part;
Keep open, oh, keep open, dear Lord, My eyes, my mind, my heart!
Hear Thou my pleading, Hear Thou my prayer!

Hymn—Praise to the Lord (Lobe Den Herrn)
From Fraxis P. Melica

Prayer—(With the Congregation joining in the Lord's Prayer)

Violin Solo—Largetto from Sonata in D Handel
Miss Maya Stocker

Hymn—Faith of Our Fathers! (St. Catherine) Hemy

Scripture—Mark 8: 31-35; 10: 32-34; Luke 23: 26-31

Offertory Anthem—What of the Night? Thompson-Andrews
Soloist: Bruce Pate, Baritone

What of the night, O watchman? Turn to the East thine eyes,
And say is there any token Of the dawning in the skies?
Or do the shadows linger, Thy lips, are they sad and dumb,
With never a word of gladness That the tarrying morn is come?
Then answer'd the patient watchman From the mountain's lonely height.
To the waiting souls in the valley, I can see the breaking light;
There's a glow on the far horizon That is growing more wide and clear,
And soon shall the sun be flinging His splendours both far and near.
What of the night, O Watchman? Rises to Thee our cry;
Prophet divine of Naz'reth, Make to our hearts reply:
Over the earth's wild warfare Comes not a time more fair,
Swords into ploughshares beaten, Peace throned ev'rywhere?
Wait, said the Heav'nly Watchman, Let not thy spirit quail,
Strife shall not be eternal, Harmony shall prevail;
Battle clouds all shall scatter, Hatred shall be outcast,
Love's ever broad'ning glory Break on the world at last!

Offertory Response—(Choir and Congregation)

Praise God from whom all blessings flow;
Praise Him, all creatures here below;
Praise Him, above, ye heavenly host;
Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.

Sermon—"With Answerable Courage"

Benediction

Response by Choir—Thee We Adore, O Saviour from "The Seven Last Words of Christ" Dubois

Thee we adore O Saviour, Bless Thee and praise Thee for ever, for on the holy cross Thou hast the world from sin redeemed.

Organ—Chorale in A minor Franck
